

TPC Sunday Morning Adult Learning Opportunities

All Adult Classes Meet 10-10:45 a.m. • Visitors Welcome!

Class	Teacher/Leader Location	Description
Christian Lifestyles	Tom Daly McDonald Room, Administration Bldg.	This class studies the New Testament and has discussions focusing on living the Christian life and the challenges of our faith. It is currently working on a study using the book Crash Course on Revelation .
Open Forum	Rev. Ed Peterson Room 2, Activities Bldg.	This class explores the Bible and living our Christian faith daily by using DVDs and books. In January, the class begins a study using Encounters with Jesus: Studies in the Gospel of John by Frances Taylor Gench.
Seekers	John & Marilyn Salter Library, Administration Bldg.	This class is studying the entire Bible. Currently they are studying the New Testament letters.
Steeple People	Audrey Burckhalter Chapel , off Fellowship Hall	This class uses Biblically-based, contemporary resources for innovative Bible studies to better understand our faith and live as Christians in today's world. On January 15, Audrey Burckhalter will begin an exciting, dynamic study of the Gifts of the Spirit. Gain new insights on how the church works best when all members use their giftedness, appreciate their own gifts, and affirm the gifts of fellow believers.
Young Adults	Kyle Myers Middle High Youth Room, Activities Bldg.	This is a relaxed group for young adults, college age or older, single or married, new to the faith, established in your faith, or just not sure. It is a chance to enjoy fellowship, discuss important issues facing adults our age. We will begin a new study on Jan. 8, so join us as we kick off the New Year!

Updated 12-27-11